This special concert by the award-winning Messages Quartet is part of an international tour of the Polish Chamber Musicians' Association, offering 6 different chamber music concerts in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Paso Robles, and New York from October-December 2021 to familiarize American audiences with previously uncelebrated artists from Poland's Polish-Jewish musical legacy.

The concerts are financed within the scope of the Multiannual Program INDEPENDENT 2017-2022, as part of the "Cultural Bridges" subsidy program of the Adam Mickiewicz Institute.

On November 7, the Honorary Consulate of the Republic of Poland in San Francisco hosted a free chamber music concert at the Commonwealth Club of California's Taube Family Auditorium. The Messages Quartet from Poland performed works by Polish-Jewish composers Szymon Laks, Aleksander Tansman, and Henryk Wars. The special event was part of an international tour cosponsored by Taube Philanthropies, the Polish Chamber Musicians' Association, the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland in Los Angeles, the San Francisco-Krakow Sister Cities Association, and the Commonwealth Club. The concert was financed within the scope of the Multiannual Program INDEPENDENT 2017-2022, as part of the "Cultural Bridges" subsidy program of the Adam Mickiewicz Institute of Poland.
